Articulation Agreement

This Articulation Agreement between Gather4Him and Corban University outlines how coursework taken by students enrolled in the Gather4Him program in Pasco, Washington will articulate to Corban University. This agreement will be periodically reviewed by Corban University with changes being made as necessary due to changes in curriculum at either institution or change in accreditation status of Gather4Him.

Recognizing that Gather4Him (G4H) and Corban University hold some missional outcomes in common, Corban University will grant recognition of the coursework completed at Gather4Him as outlined below.

1. All coursework completed at G4H will be transferred to Corban University with the following conditions:
 - a. All course grades from Gather4Him must be a C- or higher
 - b. Students must complete the Corban University application process and be accepted.
 - c. Students must meet the academic standards in Corban admission policy for the first time freshman or transfer student.
 - d. Students must enroll at Corban University within 1 year of completing the degree requirements at Gather4Him. Students who completed the Gather for Him program, outside of this one year window, will be given the opportunity to validate credits. Past articulation agreements will be taken into account and credits will be evaluated as applicable to Corban's curriculum requirements and per Corban University's transfer policy.
 - e. Transfer credits must not exceed the limits outlined in the Corban University catalog.
2. The application fee for Gather4Him students will be waived. All other fees will apply.
3. Students will be eligible for financial aid. Application for financial aid should be mailed between January 1 and February 15 to receive priority consideration for fall term.

This agreement will come into effect August 2017. This agreement can be reviewed at the request of either party.
